Each ambassador will have 60 seconds (1 minute) maximum to address the Plenary. After the conclusion of the 5 speeches, the Plenary will be granted one (1) right of reply. 2.1.1. Quorum time of the plenary session, the ThessISMUN Secretariat will decide whether to start the session with the delegates present at the moment. Delegations arriving during or after the roll call are required to send a note to the Secretariat stating their presence in the General Assembly. As long as participants have not informed the President of their arrival they will not be recognized or allowed to vote. All participants who have not informed the President of their arrival until voting procedure begins are not eligible to vote. 2.2.1. Right of Reply

A Delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned by another Delegate's comments may rise to a Right of Reply. Disagreement with the content of a Delegate's speech does not constitute sufficient justification for a Right of Reply. The President will recognize the Right of Reply at his/her discretion as well as decide on how to resolve the motion. This point may not interrupt a speaker but should be addressed the moment he/she has finished his/her speech. Should the President rule the Right of Reply out of order, his/her decision cannot be appealed. No delegate may call for a Right of Reply on a Right of Reply.

Sample opening speech:

Your Excellency the Secretary General, madam/mister president, honorable delegates, Greece as a member of the European Union, NATO and of course the United Nations has affirmed its desire for peace and co-operation. In that feeling of mutual understanding Greece urges Cyprus and Turkey to find common ground and reach an agreement. Further encourages and commits itself towards a peaceful and compromising solution of the name of the F.Y.R.O.M . Also expresses its hope for the amelioration of the Greece-Turkey relations. Finally Greece stresses the importance of ongoing environmental protection in order to face global climate change. Keeping in mind that this has become a common effort by all countries towards achieving this goal Greece wishes you all the most constructing debates during the days of the conference.

Sample Opening Speech, qualifying for a Right of Reply:

Your excellency the Secretary General, madam/mister President, honorable Delegates, the Islamic Republic of Iran is a Middle-eastern country, neighboring both Iraq and Afghanistan, two countries that have been invaded by the imperialist hawks of the West, namely the United States of America. Iran is a peace-loving Islamic state, ranking second in the world in natural gas reserves and third in oil reserves. It is OPEC's 2nd largest oil exporter. Thus it is pretty obvious why the Americans want to suppress our mighty state and control our nuclear energy production plans, which are solely for peaceful purposes. We shall not tolerate such behavior against us and we shall resist to the last man, in order to preserve our freedom and rights from the greed of the Americans and their allies.

We call upon all those prizing freedom and justice to stand against such oppression!

Sample Right of Reply:

The United States of America would like to reply to the Islamic Republic of Iran that they have invaded neither Iraq nor Afghanistan and would never commit themselves to such barbarous and inhumane acts, as Iran has, in order to secure any energy resources. The claims of Iran are preposterous and this can be seen through their efforts to develop a nuclear arsenal in order to destabilize the peace and security in the region.

Thank you.

The individual speaker's time and the purpose of the Caucus remain the same. The President may suggest a more appropriate total duration and put it to vote or may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal. Only one extension of the Moderated Caucus is allowed.

This motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass.

3.3. Voting Procedure

When the President announces that the General Assembly is entering voting procedure, no entering or exiting from the room will be permitted, unless there is an emergency or until the voting procedure has come to an end. Each Delegate of the General Assembly has one vote and must demonstrate his/her voting intentions by raising his/her placard at the President's request unless there is a Roll Call vote (see below). Delegates must vote "in favour" or "against" on procedural matters and "in favour", "against" or "abstain" on substantive matters. No Delegate shall vote on behalf of another Delegate. Abstentions are not counted as negative votes.

3.3.2. Roll Call Vote

Roll Call Motions are in order primarily for substantive matters. This Motion is automatically accepted unless the President rules it out of order; the decision is not subject to appeal. The Roll Call starts from a Delegate, randomly selected by the President.

3.3.3. Passing

During Roll Call, a Delegate may choose to pass. The President will place the Delegate at the bottom of the voting list. A Delegate who has passed once during a voting sequence may not pass again or abstain, but must ascertain his/her vote. A delegate who has passed cannot vote "with Rights".

3.3.4. Voting with Rights

A Delegate may request a right of explanation after voting. Upon completion of voting, and after the Delegates who passed have ascertained their vote, the Secretariat will allow those voting with rights to explain their vote. The President may limit the speaking time at his/her discretion.

3.3.5. Motion to Split the House

The Motion to Split the House is in order when the Delegate proposing this Motion wishes to exclude abstention from the voting options during the final vote on the Draft Resolution. Once the Motion passes, delegations shall not be allowed to abstain during the voting of the Resolution.

3.3.6. Motion to Divide the Question

Prior to the start of the voting procedure on a Draft Resolution, a Delegate may rise to a Motion to Divide the Question in order to vote on an individual operative clause, a group of operative clauses or clause by clause. A Delegate must specify how he/she wishes to divide the operative clauses.

The President shall take one (1) Speaker in favour and one (1) Speaker against the first Motion to Divide the Question for a speaking time of one (1) minute each. The Motion requires 2/3 majority in order to pass. If the Motion

The divided section that fails during voting will be taken out of the final Draft Resolution; only those sections that have passed will remain. Subsequently, the General Assembly will proceed to vote on the new final Draft Resolution as a whole.

3.3.7. Motion to Retake the Vote

The Motion to Retake the vote is in order when the result of the vote on the Resolution ends with a difference of one (1) or a tie. The Motion automatically passes and the General Assembly enters informal debate for a short period of time, defined by the Secretariat. After the caucus the vote shall be retaken and the result of the second vote shall be considered as final. No Motions to retake the vote shall be entertained. Should the second vote end in tie the results of the previous vote shall be considered final and shall not be subject to another motion to retake vote. In case the initial vote is a tie as well the matter is considered to have failed.

3.3.8. Motion to Adjourn the Session

A Delegate may rise to a Motion to Adjourn the Session in order to cease permanently all General Assembly Plenary activities¹. The President may rule the Motion out of order without possibility of appeal or putting it to vote. ¹ This motion is in order only to be used for the end of the conference.
